2.0 Purpose of Report

2.1 To Authorise a newly appointed officer under both the Food Safety Act 1990 and Health and Safety At Work etc Act 1974. These officers where appropriately qualified will be authorised to serve Improvement and Prohibition Notices under there own name, in respect to the Health & Safety at Work etc Act 1974, and Improvement Notices and Emergency Prohibition Notices under the Food Safety Act 1990.

2.2 Both pieces of legislation require that officers who enforce the powers contained within the Acts are appropriately indemnified from any action that they take provided they have acted within there powers.

2.3 Lisa Forshaw commences with the Authority on the 26th February 2003.

3.0 Detail

3.1 Health & Safety at Work Etc Act 1974

Any Local Authority which is an enforcing Authority under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974(HSWA) has the power under section 19(1) of that Act to:
'appoint as inspectors such persons having suitable qualification as it thinks necessary for carrying into effect the relevant statutory provisions within its field of responsibility and may terminate any appointment made under this section.' HSWA requires that each inspector has a written instrument of appointment, known as a 'warrant' in accordance with Section 19(2) of the Act. The Warrant should specify the powers conferred on the inspector and should be under the common seal of the Authority. These are the only powers the inspector may exercise.

3.2 Food Safety Act 1990

Any Local Authority which is an enforcing Authority under the Food Safety Act 1990 has the power under section 5 of that Act to:

'appoint as inspectors such persons having suitable qualification as prescribed by Code of Practice No 19 ' Code of Practice on the qualifications and experience of authorised officers and experts'. Consequently, the authorisation of officers under section 5 of the Act , and the conferring of powers under Section 9,10,11,12,29 and 32 of the Act where applicable.
