LOCAL GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

MODERN MEMBERS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

*Advance Level
Overview and Scrutiny*

Tuesday 20 November 2001

To be held at
South Derbyshire District Council

AGENDA ITEM:

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

ADVANCED LEVEL OVERVIEW AND SCRUTINY

COURSE OUTLINE

The Course

Following the success of last year's Developing the Role of Members in Overview and Scrutiny we are pleased to be able to offer an Advanced Level Overview and Scrutiny in Local Government.

Who Should Attend

Elected Members of Local Authorities who have been appointed to Overview and Scrutiny positions within their Authority and had three to six months in an Overview and Scrutiny Role. The design of the course will reflect the practical elements of the tasks involved in Overview and Scrutiny.

Scope

There will be the opportunity to review progress across the region and share experiences.

Course Objectives

The objectives of the course are:

- To further provide for Councillors the opportunity to develop the skills and knowledge required for the effective Overview and Scrutiny of Local Government Activity.
- To gain further understanding of good practice.
- To provide an opportunity for Councillors to reflect on their experiences of Overview and Scrutiny and to discover different ideas and solutions to take back to their respective authorities.

- To identify skills, knowledge and attitude which will enable Councillors to be more effective scrutineers.

Course Leader

Councillor Geoff Williams is the Chairman of Overview and Scrutiny of Planning Function in the City of Worcester where he is a Leading Member.

His knowledge and experience as a member provide a realistic approved to the subject of Overview and Scrutiny.
